

Minionese

A comprehensive guide to understanding the playful language of Minions, featuring common phrases, greetings, and expressions used by these beloved characters.

Basic Greetings and Farewells

Bello

Hello

Poopaye

Goodbye

Tank yu / Bank yu

Thank you

Tulaliloo ti amo

We love you

These essential phrases form the foundation of Minion communication, allowing them to greet friends, say goodbye, express gratitude, and share affection with those around them.

Food and Hunger Expressions

Common Food Words

- Me want banana - I want a banana / hungry
- Banana / Banan - Banana
- Gelato - Ice cream
- Bapple - Apple
- Matoka - I'm hungry
- Popó - Popcorn

Special Dishes

- Poulet - Chicken
- Poulet tikka masala - Chicken tikka masala (fun phrase)
- Kampai / Kanpai - Cheers

Numbers and Counting

1 Hana
One

2 Dul
Two

3 Sae
Three

Minions use Hana, Dul, Sae to count from one to three, borrowing from Korean number words to create their unique counting system.

Polite Phrases and Social Expressions

Para tu / Para ti

For you

Bi-do

I'm sorry

La boda / Laboda

Marriage

Pwede na

Can we start?

Muak muak muak

Kiss kiss

These expressions help Minions navigate social situations, from offering gifts and apologizing to celebrating special occasions and showing affection.

Commands and Questions

Commands

- Stupa / Stopa - Stop
- Luk at tu - Look at you

Questions

- Po ka / Poka - What?
- Vipomos - What's happening?
- Potato na - What is that?

Minions use these phrases to give directions, ask questions, and express curiosity about their surroundings.

Negative Expressions and Insults

Sa la ka!

How dare you?

Tatata bala tu

I hate you

Bananonina

Ugly

Draka

Idiot

When Minions are upset or angry, they use these colorful expressions to voice their displeasure or insult others in their characteristically humorous way.

Everyday Objects and Actions

Baboi / Papoy / Baboi

Toy

Chasy

Chair

Pado

Fart

Underwear

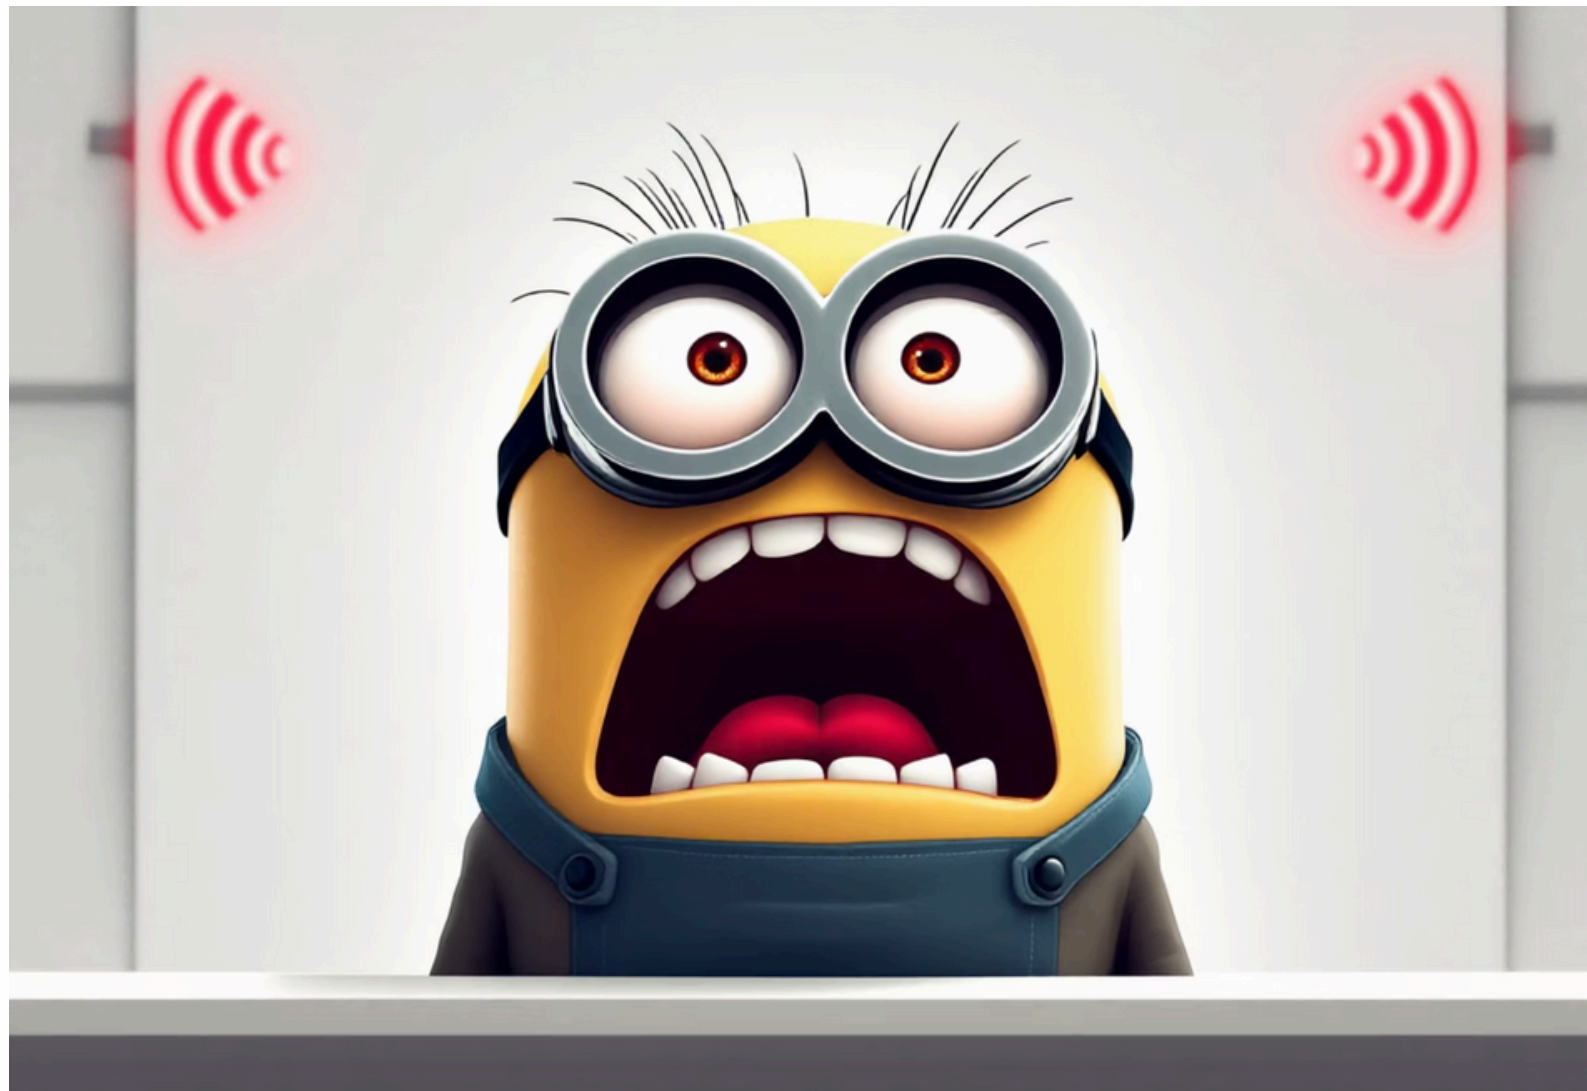

I swear

These words help Minions describe common objects and actions in their daily lives, from toys they play with to furniture they use.

Sounds and Expressions

Bee do bee do

Fire alarm sound

Hahaha

Laughter

Minions are known for their expressive sounds and laughter. Bee do bee do mimics the sound of a fire alarm, while Hahaha represents their infectious laughter that brings joy to everyone around them.

Complete Minionese Reference

Minionese is a delightful blend of words borrowed from various languages including English, Spanish, French, Italian, and Korean, mixed with playful gibberish that creates the unique language of Minions. From basic greetings like Bello (Hello) and Poopaye (Goodbye) to food expressions like Me want banana (I want a banana / hungry) and emotional phrases like Tulaliloo ti amo (We love you), this language captures the playful, childlike nature of these beloved characters.

Whether they're counting with Hana, Dul, Sae (One, two, three), asking Po ka (What?), or expressing anger with Sa la ka! (How dare you?), Minions communicate with enthusiasm and humor. Their vocabulary includes everything from polite phrases like Tank yu (Thank you) and Para tu (For you) to silly sounds like Bee do bee do (Fire alarm sound) and Muak muak muak (Kiss kiss).